Question 19 was called, viz.: What preachers have died during the past year?

Answer: Daniel Culbreth.

The following memoir was read by J. A. Cuninggim for the Committee on Memoirs:

MEMOIR OF REV. DANIEL CULBRETH.

Rev. Daniel Culbreth, son of Cornelius and Lucy Frazier Culbreth, was born in Sampson County, N. C., April 29th, 1808. He was the eldest of fourteen children, eight of whom are still living. His paternal grandfather came from Scotland, and all of his children were baptized in the Presbyterian church. His mother was a member of the Baptist church; through her faithfulness he claimed to have received his first religious impressions. He was happily converted at fourteen years of age, under the preaching of Rev. Bond English, of the South Carolina Conference, who was stationed in Fayetteville, N. C., and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at that place October 7th, 1825.

He was licensed as an exhorter October 18th, 1827, and to preach at Parker's church, Black River Circuit, by Moses Brock, P. E., Oct. 25th, 1828.

He was admitted on trial into the Virginia Conference at New Berne, N. C., in 1831; ordained deacon at Petersburg, Va., by Bishop Hedding, March 3d, 1833; ordained elder at Lynchburg, Va., February 15th, 1835, and received the following appointments, viz.:

1831, Trent Circuit.
1832, Snow Hill Circuit.
1833, Albemarle Sound.
1834, Raleigh Circuit.
1835–'36, Haw River Circuit.
1837, Snow Hill Circuit.
1838–'39, Pittsylvania Circuit.
1840, Haw River Circuit—January.
1840, Tar River Circuit—December.
1841, Trent Circuit.
1842–'43, Sampson Circuit.
1844, Raleigh Circuit.
1845, Nash Mission.
1846, Tar River Mission.
1847–'48, Raleigh City Mission.
1849–'50, Hillsboro Circuit.
1851–'2–'3, Raleigh City Mission.
1854, Raleigh African Mission.
1855, Fayetteville Circuit.
1856, Raleigh City Mission.

1857–'58, Bladen Circuit.
1859–'60–'61, South River Mission.
1862, Magnolia Circuit.
1863, Elizabeth Circuit.
1864, Magnolia Circuit.
1865–'66, Onslow Circuit.
1867–'68, Everettsville Circuit.
1869–'70–'71, Lenoir Circuit.
1872, Snow Hill Circuit.
1873, New Berne Circuit.
1874–'77 inclusive, Craven Circuit.
1878, Smithville Circuit.
1879–'80, Coharie Circuit.

At the Winston Conference in 1880 he closed an unbroken pastoral service of fifty years by asking for a superannuated relation.

He was twice married. On the 3d of December, 1835, to Miss Emeline L. Pullen, daughter of Turner and Elizabeth Pullen, of Wake County, N. C., who shared his toils for nineteen years, and added much to his ministerial success, and died in great peace June 23d, 1854. On the 8th of November, 1855, he was married to Mrs. Elizabeth West Carlton, widow of Rev. Peter Carlton, of Duplin, N. C., who was a true helpmeet until about five years ago, when she, too, was called by the Master to the reward of the faithful. By the first marriage there was one son, who died of typhoid fever at Charleston, S. C., as a soldier, at the age of sixteen years. Also two daughters, Mrs. W. B. Hutchings and Mrs. William Wynne, of Raleigh, N. C. Since the death of his second wife he has made his home with his daughters, where his presence was a constant benediction, and where he received as tender and unremitting kindness as kinship, purified by grace, could bestow. What was said of Barnabas (Acts xi and 24) well describes Uncle Culbreth,—"He was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord." He was thoroughly renewed by grace—good tempered, sweet, affable, guileless. The presence of the Holy Ghost made him cheerful and happy and successful in being near to Christ. His confidence in God never failed. Much of his work was in very difficult and humble fields, yet he was fully assured that he should have food and raiment, and that the seed-sowing should result in a gracious in-gathering of souls, and so it was, and shall be, for many will arise to call him blessed in "the great crowning day." For several years he has been confined most of the time to his sick-room, which has been, indeed, a Bethel where the presence of Jacob's God has been his constant comfort. The many ministerial and other friends who have honored themselves by visiting this man of God, have gone away rejoicing at the complete triumph of grace in his rich experience.

He looked anxiously for the summons of the Saviour, which greeted him at 10 P. M. January 7th, 1891, at the home of his son-in-law, W. B. Hutchings.

"Life's duty done, as sinks the clay,
Light from its load the spirit flies;
While heaven and earth combine to say,
'How blest the righteous when he dies.'"

Remarks in eulogy were made by V. A. Sharpe, J. W. Jenkins, F. L. Reid, J. M. Rhodes and R. H. Whitaker.

The memoir was adopted as the report of the committee.

J. R. Sawyer introduced the following resolution, which was read and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Conference has heard with deep regret of the death of that elect lady, sister Glenn, wife of Rev. E. C. Glenn, of this Conference, and that we tender our sympathies to him in his bereavement, and pray that the blessings of that God who knows so well how to comfort those who are in sorrow, may be richly furnished him in this hour of grief.

(Signed) J. T. ABERNETHY,
J. R. SAWYER.

The Conference adjourned, followed by the administration of the sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

FIFTH DAY.

The funds apportioned by the Board were paid to the claimants, or their representatives, in open Conference.

V. A. Sharpe introduced the following resolution, which was read and unanimously adopted by a rising vote:

Resolved, That the good people of Greenville are entitled to the thanks of this Conference, and they are hereby expressed, for the generous, refined and bountiful hospitality extended to its members.

(Signed) V. A. SHARPE,
N. M. JURNEY,
J. A. CUNINGGIM.

W. B. Doub submitted the report of the Board of Missions, which was read and adopted. (Document No. 12 of Appendix.)

F. L. Reid introduced the following resolution, which was read and adopted:

Resolved, That the Trustees of Trinity College be requested to appoint a committee to arrange for a series of educational mass-meetings in the State in the interest of the Trinity College endowment fund, during the coming year, and provide speakers for the same.

Resolved, 2d, That we tender our thanks to Bishop Galloway for the very valuable service he has already rendered the College during the year, and that we earnestly request him to attend and address as many mass-meetings as he possibly can in our State during the coming year.

(Signed) F. L. REID,
B. R. HALL.

J. T. Gibbs introduced the following resolution, which was read and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we acknowledge the courtesy of our brethren of the Baptist Church of the town of Greenville in opening to us their house of worship, and hereby express our thanks for the same.

(Signed) J. T. GIBBS,
W. W. ROSE.

W. B. Doub introduced the following resolution, which was read and adopted:

Resolved, That this Conference appreciates the full and well-printed proceedings of this body as published in the Daily Reflector, by Mr. D. J. Whichard, and we hereby tender our thanks and best wishes for the same.

(Signed) C. W. HUNT,
W. B. DOUB,
G. A. OGLESBY.

The Conference having concluded its business, the journal of this morning's session was read and approved.

The Bishop announced hymn number 232,

'And let our bodies part,
To diff'rent climes repair;'

which, having been sung, question 35 was called, viz.: Where are the preachers stationed this year?

Bishop Galloway announced the appointments. (See next page.)

The Conference, at 12 o'clock M., adjourned sine die.

Benediction by Bishop Galloway.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON TEMPERANCE.

Your Committee on Temperance having given to the matter such thought as time and circumstances allowed, beg leave to report that, from information before us, we believe the prohibition sentiment to be growing. The licensed saloon, however, is still the curse of many communities. Against this unmixed evil we recommend that every proper effort of the people of God be directed, and we take great pleasure in calling attention to the recent decision of the Supreme Court, that county commissioners are not obliged in any case to grant a license.

We further suggest that, in every community where there is an effort to secure a license, the good people of such community be represented in an effort to prevent it.

In this connection, we call attention to chapter 5, page 128 of our Discipline, as affording all necessary instruction to our preachers and people. Respectfully submitted,

V. A. SHARPE,
Chairman.

R. H. BEERY, Secretary.

REPORT OF BOARD OF COLPORTAGE.

The Board of Colportage has carefully considered the work of our Agent of Colportage and Sunday-schools, and is highly gratified at the success with which he has met during the year. The report of the Agent shows he has not been idle, but abundant in labors. We are gratified that the Western North Carolina Conference has recommended that we continue jointly to keep one General Agent in this important field of church work, therefore the Board recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, 1st, That, as the Publishing House prefers that all our business should come through the Agent, we will, as far as possible, make all our orders for book and Sunday-school supplies through him, and that the Secretary of our Sunday-school Board be requested to make his orders for Sunday-school supplies through the same agency.

Resolved, 2d, That we request our presiding Bishop to reappoint the Rev. T. J. Gattis as Agent of Colportage and Sunday-schools, and we hereby pledge him our continued and hearty support in this important and responsible work.

Resolved, 3d, That we request the General Agent to employ an active Sub-Agent for each Presiding Elder's District.

Resolved, 4th, That our Agent give special attention to the circulation of our doctrinal tracts and books on the subject of baptism.

P. L. HERMAN, Chairman.

S. V. HOYLE, Secretary.

[Document No. 3.]

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

The Committee on Books and Periodicals beg leave to report:

First. That we are glad to learn of the great prosperity of our Publishing House. We most heartily recommend its publications to all our people. Twelve hundred thousand members of a church ought to purchase more than one hundred thousand dollars worth of books in one year.

Second. The Christian Advocate, our great connectional organ, is well worthy of our patronage, and we hope that it will soon obtain its much desired fifty thousand subscribers.

Third. The Quarterly Review, so ably edited by Rev. W. P. Harrison, D. D., should be read, not only by all our ministers, but by our educated men and women.

Fourth. The Missionary Reporter, the Woman's Missionary Advocate, and the Sowers and Reapers, all missionary publications, should be more widely disseminated through the church.

Fifth We would not overlook the Bright Jewels, published by Mrs. W. S. Black, at Oxford. It is bright and breezy and will delight the little ones.

Sixth. Last, but above all, our own organ, the Raleigh Christian Advocate, is first in our affection and esteem. It ought to be in every Methodist family in North Carolina. We most heartily endorse it and recommend it to all our people. We are glad to hear that it is prospering. We request the Bishop to appoint Rev F. L. Reid, D. D., as editor another year. Respectfully submitted,

J. W. JENKINS,

JOE K. WILLIS, Secretary. Chairman.

[Document No. 4.]

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

The Committee on District Conference Records beg leave to report as follows:

The Records of the several Districts have been carefully examined, and, with the exception of some minor defects, may be said to be in good condition. The Records of the Fayetteville District are marred by the frequent use of abbreviations, rendering it quite difficult in many instances to get at the meaning. The Durham and New Berne Records are deficient in having no official roll. The Washington, Raleigh, Wilmington and Warrenton Records are full and accurate. The last three being models of neatness.

J. B. HURLEY, Chairman.

W. J. CROWSON, Secretary.

[Document No. 5.]

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON BIBLE CAUSE.

We, your Committee to whom was referred the consideration of the Bible Cause, respectfully beg to report, as follows:

That we deeply deplore the fact that there are still many of our people who are not supplied with the Word of God, and that there has been a sad neglect on the part of our ministers to supply this deficiency. We most heartily endorse the work of the American Bible Society as eminently worthy of the co-operation of our people. We earnestly urge our preachers to take the collection for the Bible cause; that all moneys raised for this purpose be forwarded to the agent of the American Bible Society by the Joint Board of Finance, and that the amount raised for this cause be shown in the pastors' reports.

B. B. HOLDER,
Chairman.

J. M. TURNER, Secretary.

[Document No. 6.]

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EDUCATION.

The Board of Education, to which have been referred the reports of the several institutions of learning under the fostering care of the Conference, beg leave to submit the following report:

TRINITY COLLEGE.

We rejoice in the fact that during the present year the capacity of Trinity College for imparting instruction to its students has been greatly increased. The Faculty now consists of 17 Professors and instructors, representing the "best talent that the modern educational movement has produced." When the College is moved to Durham, its effectiveness will be still more greatly increased. With over 200 students, it has not sufficient room at its present location to do its best work. Owing to an unexpected drawback, the removal to Durham cannot be accomplished before next September. The spiritual condition of the students is a matter of profound gratitude to the great Head of the Church. Its future is full of hope, and it needs only the loyalty of the church to its own College to make the sphere of its usefulness unsurpassed by any.

We make the following recommendations:

1. That this Conference make an assessment of $2,700 upon the several Presiding Elders' Districts for the use of the College in paying the salaries of the Faculty.

2. That the holding of educational mass-meetings be continued throughout the year, one at least on every charge—particularly in the rural districts—if possible, with the co-operation of the Presiding Elders and preachers in charge.

3. That the work of locating and establishing district preparatory schools throughout this Conference, as well as of defining the scope, superintending the operations and electing and removing the instructors in the same, be put into the hands of the Board of Trustees of Trinity College; Provided, that such schools be built and operated without, in any way, putting the Conference under financial obligation, and that the properties be deeded, and kept free of encumbrance, to the Trustees of Trinity College, and be so situated as not to interfere with any of the Conference schools already in existence.

4. That all preparatory schools now owned by the churches in this Conference be transferred to the Board of Trustees of Trinity College, to be conducted under their direction as herein outlined, through an executive committee, to be composed of the President of Trinity College, the Presiding Elder of the District, the preacher in charge and the Principal of the school.

According to the amended charter of Trinity College, the Trustees shall be thirty-six in number, of whom twelve (12) shall be elected by the North Carolina Conference of the M. E. Church, South, twelve (12) by the Western North Carolina Conference of said church, and twelve (12) by the graduates of said College.

The following were nominated by the Board for this Conference to elect:

Rev. S. D. Adams, Rev. W. S. Black, Rev. J. A. Cuninggim, Rev. V. A. Sharpe, Rev. F. D. Swindell, Rev. M. L. Wood, Rev. E. A Yates, J. S. Carr, Walter Clark, B. N. Duke, R. T. Gray, T. J. Jarvis.

The Board report the following as the Trustees of Trinity College, elected by the graduates of said Institution, with the respective terms of service:

Six years—F. M. Simmons, W. R. Odell, O. W. Carr, N. M. Jurney.

Four years—B. R. Hall, G. S. Bradshaw, W. P. Mercer, W. H. Pegram.

Two years—John W. Mauney, M. A. Smith, F. L. Reid, W. C. Willson.

GREENSBORO FEMALE COLLEGE.

Great improvements have been made in Greensboro Female College in its equipment during the year, consisting of electric lights, steam-heating, steam-laundry, hot and cold water on each floor, a new and finely equipped laboratory, making the College fully the equal in its appointments to any College for young ladies in the State. The Faculty is composed of experts in their departments and are all members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. There has been added during the year a department of Book-keeping and Penmanship, and a department of Telegraphy and Type-writing, both of which are doing splendid work. There are in attendance 210 students. We most heartily endorse and recommend the College to all our people who have daughters to educate, and we urge them to avail themselves of the advantages which this College offers.

LITTLETON FEMALE COLLEGE.

This Institution continues to do good work in the cause of female education, with increased facilities for imparting instruction. Being beautifully and healthily located, and having a competent Faculty, it commends itself to the favorable consideration of those who have daughters to educate. Their daughters will be well cared for mentally, physically, morally and religiously. The Conference owns sixty-three shares of stock in this institution, which at present gives it a controlling interest.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse Littleton Female College, and request the Bishop to appoint Rev. J. M. Rhodes President of said Institution.

WESLEYAN FEMALE COLLEGE.

We are gratified to note the increasing patronage and usefulness of Wesleyan Female College, as well as its complete and thorough equipment for the work it has to do. We regard it as one of our most important institutions and a necessity to Methodism in that part of our Conference, where other denominations are making such rapid strides in educational progress. We most heartily commend this College to the patronage of our people, and urge our preachers and laymen to do all in their power to encourage and support it.

Resolved, That this Conference approves of the proposed transfer of the control of the property of the Wesleyan Female College at Murfreesboro, N. C., from the Board of Corporators of that Institution to the North Carolina Conference, and directs that there be a committee of four (4) members appointed to negotiate for the transfer of the property on the following conditions:

1. That this Conference Committee shall hold the property by lease at a merely nominal consideration until the encumbrance now resting upon it be paid.

2d. That this encumbrance of $7,500 be reduced out of the annual income of the institutton by creating a sinking fund.

3. That this property, to be received and held by lease during the continuance of the encumbrance, shall be leased with the distinct understanding that said property, when released of its encumbrance, and not before then, shall be deeded as a free gift to the North Carolina Conference without further consideration.

4. That this proposed lease shall not be entered into unless the holder of the mortgage upon the institution shall so modify that instrument as to exempt the property from foreclosure for the term of five years.

5. That the Board of Corporators shall give to this committee bond to title to said property for its transfer according to the terms herein stated.

6. That this committee shall serve as the Executive Committee to take charge of this institution and to make report to the next annual Conference.

NOTE BY SECRETARY OF THE CONFERENCE.—The Conference appointed the following to constitute the committee provided for in the foregoing resolution: S. D. Adams, John N. Cole, J. M. Wynn, John F. Crowell and J. W. Alspaugh.

LOUISBURG FEMALE COLLEGE.

This Institution, located at Louisburg, N. C., is under the Presidency of Prof. S. D. Bagley, assisted by first-class teachers, and is accomplishing much good in educating the daughters of our State.

M. L. WOOD,
Chairman.

REPORT OF SUNDAY-SCHOOL BOARD.

The Sunday-school Board beg leave to submit the following report:

There are in the bounds of our Conference 583 Sunday-schools, an increase of 19. Number of officers and teachers, 4,286, an increase of 100. Number of scholars, 35,035, an increase of 947. Amount expended for literature, $6,416 84, an increase of $1,153.39. Contributed for Missions, $1,384.25, an increase of $25.56; contributed on Children's Day, $360.13, a decrease of $50.27. Whole amount raised in Sunday-schools, $11,054.15.

The statistics for this year show that we have forty more Sunday-schools than churches.

District Sunday-school Conferences have been held in all the Districts generally, with an increase of interest.

From the report of the Treasurer we learn that $526.34 have been expended this year from the "Children's Day" fund in helping needy Sunday-schools, leaving a deposit at the Publishing House of $561.40, to which will be added the amount collected this year. Your Board would recommend, first, that special effort be made to observe "Children's Day" in every charge; second, that our preachers organize Sunday-schools in destitute places as far as practicable; third, that all our Sunday-school supplies be purchased from Rev. T. J. Gattis, the Agent for Colportage and Sunday-schools.

We offer the following resolution for adoption:

That we, the Sunday-school Board of the North Carolina Conference, will make the following donations to Sunday-schools where there are no libraries: That any school buying a library costing $25 or less, we will donate twenty-five per cent. to amount raised; to any Sunday-school without library raising more than $25 and not more than $50, we will donate twenty per cent. to amount raised.

The Board wishes to call attention to the importance of securing more accurate reports from our Sunday-schools, as the statistics of the General Board show that these are often very imperfectly reported.

All collections for "Children's Day" should be forwarded to the Agent and Treasurer, Rev. J. T. Lyon, to whom, also, all applications for aid must be made.

A. R. RAVEN,
Chairman.

L. L. JOHNSON, Secretary.

REPORT OF WOMAN'S PARSONAGE AND HOME MISSION SOCIETY.

In May, 1886, the General Conference authorized the Board of Church Extension to organize a Woman's Department to collect funds for parsonage building. This organization was known only as the "Woman's Department of Church Extension," until May, 1890, when the General Conference gave it the more definite title of "Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society," at the same time so enlarged its powers as to allow it to do any work coming under the head of Home Missions.

Our Conference Society was organized a few years ago, with Mrs. John R. Brooks as Secretary. Since the division of the Conference left Mrs. Brooks in the West, it necessitated the election of new officers for the East, hence the present incumbent's position.

The meagerness of this my first report is not because of a want of interest or effort on my part. During the past year I have written to some one in almost every pastoral charge in the North Carolina Conference, urging them to engage in the work, or those who were engaged to renewed effort, but alas! almost every letter has remained unanswered till this day.

Knowing the necessity of economizing time at this hour, I will, in a few words, give you an abridged report.

RECEIPTS.

At the division of the Conference there was in the treasury	$56 36
Received from Wilmington Auxiliary for dues and mite boxes	31 35
Wilmington Auxiliary, for special donations	69 50
From Miss Carrie Mayhew, for New Berne Auxiliary	6 00
From Mrs. I. I. Rauls, for Wilson Auxiliary	5 38
From Mrs. Wm. Parker, for Wilmington Auxiliary	10 00
From Raleigh Auxiliary	5 42

DEBITS.

To amount remitted Rev. J. O. Guthrie, for Rocky Mount Parsonage, from Home Conference fund	$10 00
To amount remitted Mrs. G. P. Hendrick, General Treasurer	54 54
To special contribution for a Parsonage in Montana	69 50
To amount on hand Home Conference fund	47 16
To amount on hand General Society fund	2 71
Total amount on hand to date	49 87

Mrs. Roger Moore, of Wilmington, our very efficient Conference Treasurer, has done her work most admirably. Filled, herself, with enthusiasm in the work, she has tried to instill it into others. She is also Corresponding Secretary of the Parsonage Aid and Home Mission Auxiliary at Grace Church, Wilmington, and sends in from it a very good report. She says that Auxiliary is well organized, to which I can testify; says that one committee that works in a district, known as Brooklyn, has distributed during the past Conference year a large amount of clothing, food and cash amounting to $109.70. Another committee has distributed in food and clothing and cash to the amount of $71.40. Personal donations amount to $18.50.

We hope during the incoming year to do more organized Sunday-school work.

And now, though we have wrought but little, we thank God for what we have been able to accomplish in His name.

As a word to the wise is sufficient, allow me, God's humble handmaiden, to drop into the mind and into the heart of every member of this great body—aye, of every pastor here—this request: Organize Parsonage Aid and Home Mission Societies wherever you may go, and may He who, when among us, had not where to lay his head, crown your efforts with abundant success, and build for each and all of you an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

SUE D. SWINDELL,
President of Conf. P. A. and H. M. S.

[Document No. 10.]

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH PROPERTY.

We are glad to note the continually increasing interest in providing homes for our preachers. The charge without a parsonage, instead of being, as it once was, the rule, is now the exception to the rule. The parsonages that are being built are in keeping with the modern ideas of comfort and architecture, many of them being models of beauty. Out of one hundred and twenty-eight charges in the Conference there are thirty-six without houses for the pastor. Seven parsonages have been built during the year, and we hope the incoming year may witness still greater activity on this line.

It is with pardonable pride that we refer to the beautiful churches with which our land is being dotted. Even in our rural districts reference is had to acoustics, comfort and beauty. The old idea that largely prevailed, that any sort of hull would answer for God's house, is exploded, and the houses of worship that are being built reflect the intelligence, the wealth and the devotion of the people.

The Conference has raised and expended on these two lines of church work $11,394.41 more than last year.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN D. PEGRAM,
Chairman.

C. W. ROBINSON, Secretary

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS.

The Board of Missions of the North Carolina Conference beg leave to report :

The Board has had under its care during the past year in its Domestic Missionary operations twenty-six charges, for which there has been raised the sum total of $6,241.86.

From these charges themselves there has been raised for the support of the pastors the sum total of $8,168.88. The highest salary paid any pastor was $1,000 by the charge he served and $210 by the Board. The next highest was $800 by the charge and $326 by the Board.

The lowest amount paid by any charge was $48.93 ; the next lowest was $56.54. The average amount paid by the charges was $314 and the average by the Board about $236, making a total average of $550.

With this force of twenty-six pastors in the Domestic Missionary field, and thus supported jointly by the Board and what the charges themselves have raised, there have been the following results : 872 conversions ; 877 additions to the Church ; 97 infants baptized ; 318 adults baptized ; 4 churches built or finished ; 10 churches now under contract ; $6,480 53 spent in church building and repairing ; 6,000 church members have had the regular ministry of the Word in 79 churches belonging to our branch of the Christian Church, and the gospel has been regularly preached in 25 additional places, such as school-houses or halls; $868.61 has been raised for Foreign Missions; $501.14 has been raised for Domestic Missions, and a total of $698.68 raised for all other collections ordered by the Annual Conference. Further statistics are 75 Sunday-schools, 543 officers and teachers, 4,170 scholars and $765.50 raised in and for the Sunday-schools.

The Board has carefully considered the interests of Domestic Missions for the coming year, and has made the following appropriations:

The congregation sang hymn No. 678, "Watchman, Tell us of the Night."

The President then introduced Dr. H. C. Morrison, Missionary Secretary, who gave a stirring missionary address, and proposed that this Conference raise enough to support a missionary and his wife in China, and named Rev. C. M. Anderson and wife. $1,450 were raised, $450 on Dr. Swindell's proposition, the balance in ten shares.

The exercises then closed.

NOTE BY TREASURER.—$791 was raised during the year and at Conference in cash on special collections for Foreign Missions.
